

Harrison Engle
Performing Arts
Class of '58

Harrison Engle –

Harrison graduated from Cass Tech performing arts curriculum in 1958. He attended Wayne State University, and then received an MFA in film from Columbia University in New York. He is married to wife Marilyn Engle and they have two grown children. Now living in Los Angeles, Harrison is an active film director and producer. Over the years, he has made many documentary and dramatic films. He attended his 30th and 40th anniversaries, and is now looking forward to seeing his Cass Tech friends again.
